EVENT SUMMARY

For the first time in Bolingbrook’s history, we will be hosting a Juneteenth festival for the benefit of Bolingbrook and surrounding communities to provide a positive and peaceful forum for the community’s residences that encourages, empowers and educates. This community event will celebrate the collective efforts of our community, more specifically, African Americans who contribute their talents to improve the local quality of life. Through education and inspiration, this event will display a commitment to multiculturalism and provide an outlet to learn about American history, reflect on progression and serve as a reminder to remain committed to social harmony.

This event will include live entertainment, food and product vendor booths and educational and informational exhibitor booths.
